SP-3 Dealer Response

James,

Just a quick note before I get to work.

I have had the SP-3 hooked up for 1 day and I must say that anyone that cannot hear the difference between the OPPO and the SP-3 should get your ears checked. I was expecting it to sound like the SP-2 and maybe a little better. I really purchased for the HDMI in's & out's. What I heard after turning it on & going through the menu was not the SP-2, and not just a little better, but allot better!

All I can say is, believe the good reviews you are hearing as they are in my opinion, correct!

Thanks Bryston!
Ralph
