Bryston Mini A Loudspeakers

A little more experimenting with the Mini A's.

Watched the Hunger Games Mocking Jay Part 1 with the Mini A's as the fronts and they were great.

I then shut down all the other speakers including the sub, down mixed the soundtrack to stereo in my Oppo 103, set the fronts to large and used the Mini A's as 2 channel stereo playback of the movie. I used the FL and FR outputs of the Oppo directly into the JC2.

The result was incredible.

The sound and detail jumped out the speakers. Dialogue was perfect and never got lost considering all the other sounds coming from the speakers. It was so good and so much fun that I played more movies and each one was exciting. I had done this in the past with my 805's but they never sounded like this. I lastly put on Planes:Fire and Rescue that I just purchased for the grand kids and I could not turn it off. It was so good that it had me thinking what do I need all these other speakers for. LOL. The bass was so punchy that it was impossible to tell the sub was off.

Every day these speakers continue to amaze me.
